

House Resolution No. 104

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives realize that the rank of Eagle Scout is a performance-based achievement, the proud standards of which have been well maintained for many years; and

Whereas, David J. Barnard of Jackson, Missouri, was found worthy to distinguish himself as an Eagle Scout upon completion of all requirements for that prestigious rank; and

Whereas, David culminated his quest to earn Scouting's highest advancement award by completing a special Eagle project of great benefit to his community; and

Whereas, during his years in Scouting, David mastered several challenging and diverse skills to earn the required number of merit badges, and demonstrated his capability and willingness to exert authority by fulfilling the duties and responsibilities of various leadership positions; and

Whereas, David developed immense personal growth and fitness by participating in the numerous assorted activities the Boy Scouts of America program offers; and

Whereas, David's attainment of the Eagle rank will be recognized at all levels of our society as being a great achievement that required considerable dedication and effort; and

Whereas, America looks to a bright and promising future because of the many achievements that have already been realized by such outstanding young citizens as David Barnard:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to David Barnard for the steadfast determination he displayed in his pursuit to attain the coveted rank of Eagle and in wishing him continued success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Eagle Scout David J. Barnard.
